Last Weeks Meeting - Renee Stephenson From The Rotary Foundation, discussed the Foundation's Ambassadorial Scholarship Program. She distributed an excellent flyer describing the eligibility requirements to participate, what's covered by the scholarship, scholarship funding for low income countries, plus a myriad of other information regarding the program. Right now there are from 13 to 15 cadets competing in our own districts. (Rotary Foundation started in 1947) A most informative program.

foundation

Steve Scott - RYLA - Looking for 3rd cand.

Dave Monroe - Presented $500.00 check to Boy Scout travel expense.

Interact - Dave Monroe said Phil Yosso is collecting school supplies for kids in Iraq.

Once again, John McLellan & Harold Spaeth report that the Dinner/Theatre is going well.

- There are 35 commitments so far. Note - Raffle tickets will cost $5.00 per. (No more 6 for $5.00)

Harold Spaeth said: The Dictionary project is moving along nicely. All concerned are doing a great job!

John Dodson - Described a plan which trains dogs to be given to returning disabled Iraq vet's. Dogs are trained in State Prison & then are given to vet's to be trained by them. John wants to have a speaker to describe the plan.

Phil Brillante's Safety tip.

With nasty weather still facing us, Phil urges all to wear proper shoes, both to protect the feet and to prevent sliding on ice or snow!
